

Grounds Week in Owls Class

We wrote some amazing poetry during this grounds week. We went into the woods and listened to the sounds that we could hear. We then created our own sound poems.

We also started to learn about 24hour time using outdoor resources.

