

Volcanoes

For homework the children were asked to research a famous volcano and display the information in their own way. We then made a huge display from all the work they produced in the hub.

We also made cross section volcanoes that show the inside of a volcano as well as the outside.

