

World Food Market

Wow! What a busy day Frogs and Newts have had, preparing and running their own World Food Market! Parents, Nans, Grandads and Grannys came from far and wide to sample the wonderful food on offer! The children were challenged to sell their food by advertising, promoting and giving good customer service! The children were so successful that some stalls sold out really quickly!

