

OWLS

We are now the experts on fungus!

Owls spent the week learning about, searching for and investigating fungus. We searched for the different fungi around the school grounds. It was amazing how many different types we found.

We then sketched the fungi that we had seen.

We decided to set up our own fungus gardens. We chose the leftover food items to put into our gardens and we will check on them to see if any fungus has grown.

