

This Summer term, our topic in Italian was to learn about the beautiful region of Tuscany in the North of Italy, near the City of Florence - famous for many beautiful things.

I loved making my sunflower. I decorated it very carefully using different colours.

Look at our beautiful oleander flowers, poppies, rolling hills and sunflowers.

Just some of the beautiful sunflower designs, rolling hills and oleander pictures.

I used pastel colours to colour in my oleander flowers. I tried to shade in light and dark.

Children learnt about the many cypress trees that are found on the rolling hills of Tuscany. They also know that it is famous for the beautiful sunflowers which the Italian people obtain sunflower oil from. They love to use this oil in their salads.

I loved drawing my oleander picture and colouring it in with pastel colours.

Children have also learnt that Tuscany is also famous for poppies and oleander flowers, which come in many bright colours. They know that the houses on the hills usually have red rooves and coloured brickwork - of many colours. You will often find these on the rolling hills of Tuscany.

I loved sketching hills and houses, all the poppies and flowers. Maya

I loved painting the oleander flowers using pencils and pastels. Isabelle

I liked sketching a picture of lots of hills, houses and cypress trees. I used paints and pastels colour in. George

Children could choose to sketch the rollings hills, the flowers and houses, using different mediums - water colours, colouring pencils and pastel colours.

We are being very creative with our beautiful oleander flowers, using pastel colours.
