

Bitterne Library Garden Opening

Bitterne Library recently updated their outdoor area and asked children from schools in the area to design a garden that could be used for people of all ages. Four of our children were chosen as winners and we were invited along to the grand opening.

